

June Training day and Hunt Test

The VCOI will be having there June training day and hunt test on June 6th&7th 2015. This will take place at Ottawa Field trial grounds in Eagle Wisconsin. The training day will start around 8:30 am. We are not allowed to stake out dogs in this park until 8:00 am. Please remember to get a parking pass when you come into the grounds if not and get caught it will be a fine of $75.00. The cost of the training session will be $15.00 which will include a training session with whatever you would like to work on with 2 bobwhite quail, lunch and a training seminar given by Dennis Nowak. (President of the VCOI). In the seminar we will cover from a puppy to a broke gun dog. Extra birds will be available to purchase for $5.00. If you would like you will have the opportunity to enter the hunt test the next day. Normally this closes on the Wednesday but we keep it open til 3:00 pm the day before the test on this day to give the newcomers to enter after the training day. You are allowed to camp overnight for a fee.

Sunday June 7th will be the hunt test given by the VCOI. Entries will be $45.00 for JR, SR and master. Lunch will be available in the building. Hope to see you there. The premium is will be available on the VCOI website.
